

Art Rocks! Radio presents Zandra Rhodes

A live Internet radio interview on March 19 from 7 to 8 p.m., Pacific Standard Time.

March 17, 2008 – San Diego; This week's show is a must-listen for fashion connoisseurs. Tune in as fashion icon Zandra Rhodes explodes onto the Internet airwaves on Art Rocks! Radio this Wednesday, Mar. 19 from 7 to 8 p.m.

The reigning queen of British haute punk recently unveiled her newest collection at the Westgate Hotel. Hot from London, "The Colorful Cruisewear Collection" has designs for clients as diverse as Diana, Princess of Wales and Jackie Onassis to rock stars like Freddie Mercury and pop celebrities like Paris Hilton and Bianca Jagger.

Zandra is considered one the top 100 designers of all time. She was first to show reversed, exposed seams and torn dresses held together by safety pins - nearly 20 years before Versace. She has just reopened her Museum in London with a fabulous new exhibition, "Peacocks and Pinstripes," and a special conference room with a small exhibition of Zandra's Chinese collection of 1980.

Alexandra Rosa, the Art Rocks! Radio's co-host and resident art diva, will interview the fashion aficionado on March 19 from 7 to 8 p.m. Log on to www.wsradio.com/artrocks to listen as Alexandra and Zandra talk fashion, trends, likes and dislikes about the San Diego fashion scene. Alexandra and Zandra will be joined in studio by Mr. Medavog, who is the illustrious owner of more than 250,000 vintage pieces, as well as stylist to Alexandra and the stars.
